Privacy Legislation

Following the implementation of national Privacy Principles in relation to Privacy legislation in Australia on 21 December 2001, all non-government schools have been advised of new requirements that they must observe in relation to the preservation of an individual's privacy. Part NPP1.3 of the National Privacy Principles states that "At or before the time (or, if not practicable after) an organisation collects personal information about an individual from the individual, the organisation must take reasonable steps to make the individual aware of:

- the organisation's identity and contact details
- the individual's access rights to the information
- why the information is being collected
- to whom the information is usually disclosed
- any law that requires the collection of the information, and
- the main consequences, if any, of the individual not providing the information."

you do NOT wish any details of any member of your family to be released under any circumstances to anyone, you need to contact us before the beginning of term. If you do not contact us, this means that you agree that the information as outlined may be released as appropriate. Please be aware that by choosing the first option (i.e. non-release of information) this includes any mention of names in the weekly Newsletter, school assemblies, lists of academic/sporting/co-curricular achievements, etc. It is not our intention to disclose personal details except when it is necessary for administrative and educational purposes and for duty of care.

Privacy Collection Notice

1. The College collects personal information, including sensitive information about pupils and parents or guardians before and during the course of a pupil's enrolment at the College. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the College to provide schooling for your son/daughter.
2. Some of the information we collect is to satisfy the College's legal obligations, particularly to enable the College to discharge its duty of care.
3. Certain laws governing or relating to the operation of schools require that certain information is collected. These include Public Health and Child Protection laws.
4. Health information about pupils is sensitive information within the terms of the National Privacy Principles under the Privacy Act. We ask you to provide medical reports about pupils from time to time.
5. The College from time to time discloses personal and sensitive information to others for administrative and educational purposes. This includes to other schools, government departments, medical practitioners, and people providing services to the College, including specialist visiting teachers, coaches and volunteers.
6. If we do not obtain the information referred to above we may not be able to enrol or continue the enrolment of your son/daughter.
7. Personal information collected from pupils is regularly disclosed to their parents or guardians. On occasions information such as academic and sporting achievements, pupil activities and other news is published in School newsletters, magazines and on our website.
8. Parents may seek access to personal information collected about them and their son/daughter by contacting the College. Pupils may also seek access to personal information about them. However, there will be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, where access may result in a breach of the College's duty of care to the pupil, or where pupils have provided information in confidence.
9. As you may know the College from time to time engages in fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you. We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.
10. We may include your contact details in a class list and College directory. If you do not agree to this you must advise us now.
11. If you provide the College with the personal information of others, such as doctors or emergency contacts, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to the College and why, that they can access that information if they wish and that the College does not usually disclose the information to third parties.
